Office of Arts & Culture

Mission Statement

The Phoenix Office of Arts & Culture supports the development and preservation of arts and culture in Phoenix, serves as the primary point of contact for international visitors, and promotes global understanding and international opportunities for citizens, businesses and organizations in Phoenix.

Key Services

Arts grants, public art, arts education, cultural facility development, cultural planning technical assistance, information services. Provide assistance and advice on matters of protocol, provide international exchange opportunities to Phoenix citizens; promote cross-cultural awareness through events and activities; coordinate out/in bound Sister City delegations.

Completed Public Art Projects

Target: 10 projects | YTD Completed: 8

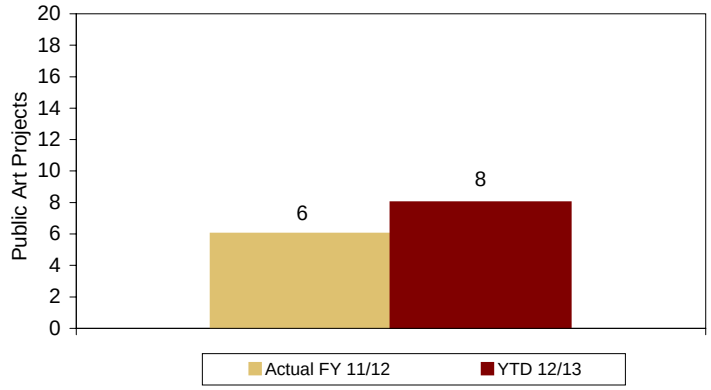
Goal:
Enhance the city's built environment through public art

Target:
Complete at least 10 projects per year

Significance:
To measure progress in implementing projects in the annual Public Art Project Plan.



Implementation of Public Art Projects

Target: 65% | YTD Percent: 69%

Goal:
Enhance the city's built environment through public art

Target:
Continuous implementation of 65% of projects in the Public Art Project Plan with funding allocated in the 2012/13 fiscal year.

Significance:
To measure progress in implementing projects in the 5-year Public Art Project Plan.

Visit us on the web at phoenix.gov

Community Presentations

Target: 38 Presentations | YTD Actual: 56

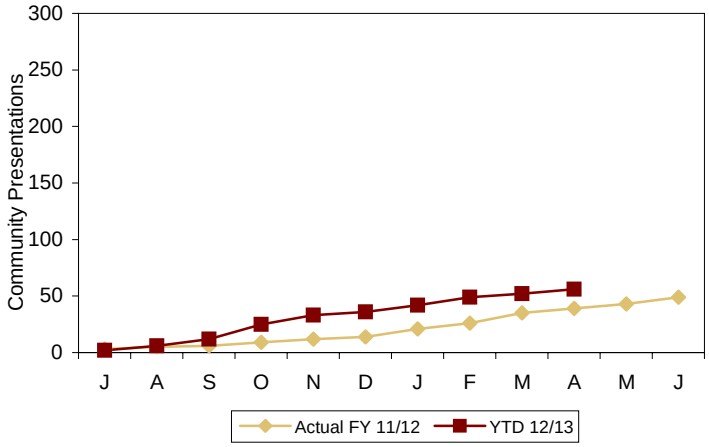
Goal:
Increase public awareness of arts and cultural issues

Target:
Give 38 community presentations per year


Significance:
To keep the general public informed about arts and cultural issues, agency programs and activities.