

Halloween and Fall Season Events

Saturday, Oct. 18

Harvest Festival 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Historic Heritage Square, Fifth and Monroe streets, is the site of a Harvest Festival, sponsored by the Rosson House/Heritage Square Foundation and Guild. Visitors can enjoy exhibits that will include: artisan weaving, spinning, pottery, quilting, locally grown vegetables, and face painting. Admission is free. Additional information is available online in the Arts, Culture and History link at phoenix.gov/parks or by calling 602-262-5029.

5th Annual Native American Farmers Market 8 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Pueblo Grande Museum, 4619 E. Washington St., will be the site for this annual event featuring locally grown produce, traditional arts and crafts, watermelon eating contest and a children's activity area that focuses on agricultural and fall themed crafts. Admission is free. Additional information is available online on the museum's Web site on the Arts, Cultural and History link at phoenix.gov/parks or by calling 602-495-0191.

Thursday, Oct. 30

Scare Fair 5 – 8:30 p.m.

Desert West Community Center, 6501 W. Virginia Ave., will host a fair for families and children ages 3 through 10 years old. The fair will include games, prizes, candy and face painting, and costs 25 cents per ticket, or five tickets for $1. Those who hold a city of Phoenix Annual Membership will receive five tickets free.

Friday, Oct. 31

Haunted Pumpkin Patch in the Park 4 - 7 p.m.

University Park, 1002 W. Van Buren Street, will be featuring a fun filled family evening with free pumpkin patch photographs, face painting, hot dogs and special guest Bee Happy the Clown. Admission is free. Additional information is available online in the Centers and Facilities link at phoenix.gov/parks or by calling 602-262-6800.

Every Tuesday in October

Terror Tuesdays (for Teens) 5 p.m.

Burton Barr Central Library, 1221 N. Central Ave., will show horror films for teenagers every Tuesday evening until Oct. 28 with host Jeff Scary.

Saturday, Nov. 1

19th Annual Día de los Muertos 5 p.m.

A celebration featuring life and death will be held at 1733 E. Oak St. This year's event is dedicated to the victims of the Genocide in Cambodia and will serve as a fundraiser for Peacework Medical and our trip to Cambodia.