

Dear City of Phoenix Employees & Partners,

We are thrilled to invite you to attend GoGreen Phoenix, Tuesday, December 3 for an empowering day focused on building resilient communities that can weather increasing and intensifying climate impacts, share and manage scarce resources like water, support the growing legions of social entrepreneurs in the Valley, and ensure that the intersections of health and sustainability are addressed equitably through good community design.

The city of Phoenix is again the event's Title Sponsor and we will be well represented on stage by Mayor Greg Stanton and key leaders from across our ranks. Please check out the day's agenda and join us to support the great Phoenix initiatives and programs being showcased by your peers!

WHAT'S ON THE DOCKET?

Mayor Greg Stanton will Keynot

Phil McNeely, Manager of the Office of Environmental Programs, sits on the Arizona Cities Forum: Building Blocks & Best Practices For Greener Cities panel

Talonya Adams, Board Chair of the Rising Phoenix Project moderates Start-Up and Stay-Up: A Guide for Social Entrepreneurs

ADDITIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- 10:45am >> Representatives from the public, private and academic sectors dig into Regional Water Innovation: Forecasting Solutions for an Ever-Thirsty Region
- 2:15pm >> Regional experts discuss community design and public health on The Intersections of Health + Sustainability panel
- 4:15pm >> The day's Special Closing Presentation, Game Changers: Sport's

  Collaborative Competition Model Rewrites The Playbook on Sustainable

  Performance, features Arizona's professional sports teams

CITY OF PHOENIX SPECIAL RATE

City of Phoenix employees and partners are eligible to receive a special rate on tickets to GoGreen Phoenix. Pay just $75 when you register by October 31 and $100 when you register on /after November 11.