Fatal Traffic Collision Investigation

An older male gets run down crossing mid-block on Glendale Road, suspect flees the scene.

Phoenix Police responded to an injured person in the street near 37th Avenue and Glendale Road. When the officers arrived, they learned an older adult male was found unresponsive in the roadway. There were no witnesses to the incident but the injuries to the victim appeared to be consistent with a traffic collision.

The fire department responded and transported the victim to the hospital. The victim was later pronounced deceased by the medical staff.

Investigators responded to process the scene, speak to possible witnesses, and collect evidence. During the investigation, it was learned the victim was struck by a silver vehicle.

There are no suspects in custody and no suspect description to release currently. The investigation is ongoing.
