Aggravated Assault on Police Officers

On September 14, 2021, at about 7:40 p.m., Phoenix Police responded to a burglary call in the area of 35th Avenue and Acoma Drive. Officers contacted the caller who said his adult male neighbor, later identified as Bryan Judy, entered the caller's home and locked himself in the bathroom. When police arrived, Judy had left and returned to his own home next door. The officers went next door to make contact with Judy and return a cell phone he had left behind. The officers could hear Judy inside the garage and attempted to communicate with him, when Judy began firing a rifle through the garage door. The rounds struck a parked car in the driveway, and the officers ran to take cover. No officers were struck by gunfire.

The Special Assignments Unit responded and began negotiations with Judy, who ultimately surrendered and was arrested. Judy was booked for aggravated assault on police officers, and discharging a firearm within city limits.
