Fatal Traffic Collision Investigation

On December 1, 2021, at about 7:30 p.m., Phoenix Police responded to a traffic collision in the area of 67th Avenue and Highland Avenue. Officers learned a Chevy Corvette was travelling southbound on 67th Avenue when it left the roadway and collided with a tree. The vehicle sustained extensive damage and the occupants had to be extricated by the fire department. The adult male driver and adult female passenger sustained serious but non-life-threatening injuries and were transported to a local hospital for treatment. There was a 4-year-old unrestrained child on the lap of the female passenger during the collision. The child sustained serious injuries and was transported to a local hospital and later pronounced deceased.

At this time, detectives believe speed is a factor in the collision.
