Homicide Investigation

Phoenix Police are investigating a homicide that has left a 49-year-old male dead in northwest Phoenix.

On May 28th around 6 p.m., Phoenix Police received a call about a man shot in the chest in the area of 39th Avenue and Grovers Avenue. When officers got to the scene, they located an adult male, later identified as David Standley, with gunshot wounds. Mr. Standley was taken to a local hospital where he died from his injuries.

An adult male was detained on scene and was interviewed by detectives, ultimately making a claim of self-defense. Based on evidence at the scene and witness statements, the male was released, and the investigation will be submitted to the Maricopa County Attorney's Office for review.
