Homicide Investigation

Phoenix Police are investigating a shooting that has left a 57-year-old male dead.

On April 26th Phoenix Police were called to the area of 4000 North 27th Avenue about an unknown trouble. When officers arrived on scene, they located a male, identified as Kent Ellsworth, with obvious signs of trauma. Mr. Ellsworth was transported to a local hospital where he died from his wounds. At this time, Detectives are looking to speak to the driver of the vehicle pictured below, described as a white male, who may have information related to this homicide. The vehicle is believed to be an older model BMW with a temporary plate and missing a hood and passenger side headlight.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to contact the Phoenix Police Department, or Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS (480-TESTIGO for Spanish Speakers) if they wish to remain anonymous.
