Shooting in Roosevelt Row

(June 26, 2023): Detectives are investigating a shooting that sent one man to the hospital with life-threatening injuries. Another man is in custody after officers gave chase as the incident unfolded.

Just before 11:30 p.m. a shooting occurred between two men in a parking lot just outside a business near 2nd and McKinley Streets. As the shooting occurred, two off-duty Phoenix Police officers were inside a parked patrol vehicle nearby which was struck by the gunfire. The officers were not struck and saw a man running from the scene with a gun in hand. The officers gave chase and took the man into custody. A firearm was also recovered nearby.

The fire department responded and transported the victim to the hospital with life-threatening injuries. The man is currently in critical, but stable condition at the hospital. One of the officers sustained a minor injury while taking the suspect into custody. No other injuries were reported.

The suspect will be booked later today on multiple felonies.
