Early Morning Hit and Run Turns Fatal

(June 25, 2023) A bicyclist riding south along 7th Street near Camelback Road was struck and killed by two vehicles who had left the area early Sunday morning.

On June 25, 2023, just after 3:00 a.m., patrol officers responded to a collision involving a man riding a bicycle near 7th Street and Oregon Street. When officer got to the area, they located an adult man suffering from critical injuries. Phoenix Fire personal responded to the scene and took the man to the hospital where he did not survive his injuries.

Detectives with The Phoenix Police Vehicle Crimes Unit responded to take over the investigation. Early information indicates the victim was riding south on 7th Street when the first vehicle struck him causing him to fall in the roadway. While on the ground, a second vehicle struck the victim and failed to stay at the scene. Details of this incident remain part of an ongoing investigation. Both involved vehicles continued to drive south as they left the area.

Anyone with information is asked to call into Phoenix Police non-emergency or call Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS or 480-TESTIGO to remain anonymous and be eligible to receive a cash reward.
