Arrest Made in Fatal Shooting

(December 16, 2023) Phoenix Police detectives make an arrest after officers were called to a local hospital where a woman suffering from apparent gunshot wounds was dropped off. The victim was pronounced deceased at the hospital by medical staff.

On December 15, 2023, just after midnight, Phoenix police officers responded to a hospital and learned the fatal shooting incident took place at an apartment in the area of 1700 West Missouri Avenue. When officers got to the complex, they contained an apartment believed to be involved. Tactical units with the Phoenix police department responded and served a search warrant on the apartment. No one was found in the apartment; however, obvious signs of a shooting were seen inside. Detectives responded and began to process the scene.

Detectives continued to investigate and learned of a possible location for the suspect who was identified as 36-year-old Cori Braggs. Detectives and tactical response officers contained a residence in the area of 19th Avenue and Glendale Avenue where negotiations with Braggs began. After some time, Braggs was taken into custody and later booked into MCSO jail under booking number G065753.
