Detectives Investigate Deadly Shooting

(February 12, 2023) Phoenix Homicide detectives are investigating what led up to the shooting death of a man inside a local restaurant in the area of 2700 West Camelback Road.

Phoenix officers responded to a shooting call at a local restaurant on Saturday night just before 10:00 p.m. in the area of 27th Avenue and Camelback Road. Officer got to the scene where they saw a man identified as Oscar Luna suffering from a gunshot wound. Phoenix fire responded and took the man to a local hospital where he did not survive his injuries.

While on scene, officers detained an adult man involved in the shooting and made contact with several witnesses. When detectives responded to take over the investigation, it was learned that the man killed had entered the restaurant with a gun and fired a number of rounds inside the building.

The man detained and questioned by police was inside the restaurant during this incident and had shot the individual ending this confrontation. The man provided statements of self-defense which were consistent with statements made by witnesses. No arrests have been made in this case.

This incident is still under investigation. Once completed, the Maricopa County Attorney's Office will review the case for any criminal charges.
