Event: 25th Annual Southwest Police Motorcycle Training and Competition
Location: 9100 West Cardinal Way, Glendale
Who: More than 130 Motorcycle Officers from all over the country
Why: For bragging rights and to raise money for Special Olympics of Arizona

The Phoenix Police Department is proud to play host to the largest police motorcycle training and competition event in the country. The 25th Annual Southwest Police Motorcycle Training and Competition will kick off this Friday, April 8th, with practice rounds and competition beginning Saturday, April 9th.

Come watch more than 100 motorcycle officers from all over the country (and beyond) show off their skills maneuvering a more than 800-pound motorcycle through various skills.

Media will have the opportunity to speak to participants as well as take live action video of the event.

This event is also open to the public free of charge.

A Phoenix Police PIO will be at the event Friday from 8 a.m. until 11 a.m. to facilitate interviews. If you plan on attending any other time during the two-day event, please contact PIO Sgt. Vincent Cole so he can make arrangements for you to have someone to interview.
