Collision Critically Injures One

(February 27, 2023) Phoenix police detectives are investigating a two-car collision that left a man in critical condition Sunday afternoon in north Phoenix.

At about 1:07 p.m. on February 26, 2023, Phoenix police officers responded to a collision near 1500 West Union Hills Drive. When officers got to the scene, they found the driver of one of the cars suffering critical injuries. The Phoenix Fire Department responded and took the man to a local hospital where he is being treated for life-threatening injuries. Two passengers in the second car were also provided medical aid and taken to local hospitals for non-life-threatening injuries.

Detectives learned the driver of the second car took off from the scene. He was later located, arrested and booked into the Maricopa County Jail. Speed appears to be a factor.

This investigation is still active.
