FALL ACTIVITIES & "PAINT PHOENIX PURPLE"

I hope you are enjoying our cool weather. As the temperatures are dropping there is a lot more to do and to enjoy with your friends and family.

The Arizona State Fair will be here from October 10 through November 2, 2014. Getting Arizona Involved in Neighborhoods (G.A.I.N.) events are being held on Saturday, October 18 from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. Check with you local neighbor organization for their scheduled time or visit www.phoenix.gov/police.

The City of Phoenix is also kicking off "Paint Phoenix Purple." Paint Phoenix Purple is a local awareness campaign brought to our city in collaboration of more than 50 community, private and public organizations. The campaign has created a roadmap to end domestic violence in Phoenix by creating a strategic plan consisting of five "pillars":

- 1. Increase Community Awareness and Advocacy
- 2. Make Phoenix a National Model
- 3. Reform the Justice System to Focus on Domestic Violence
- 4. Enhance Coordination of the Service Delivery System
- 5. Develop Community Partnerships to End Domestic Violence

PHOENIX 2020 “A Clear Vision for the Future”

Every month you can catch our show Phoenix 2020 “A Clear Vision for the Future” on Cox Cable Channel 11 or catch us on YouTube under cityofphoenixaz.

The latest show, I interviewed City of Phoenix Human Services Director, Deanna Jonovich. We talked about our campaign to end domestic violence, “Paint Phoenix Purple” and the different ways you can get involved to help make a difference. Next, celebrate Mexico’s Independence Day at City Hall and watch the Grito Ceremony by the Consul General of Mexico, Roberto Rodriguez Hernandez. This was a very special day for me and my family as I was also honored with the Ohtli Award. This award is the highest honor bestowed by the Government of Mexico to a leader outside of Mexico. I am thankful and humbled by such an honor.
