

PRESENT
SHE MATTERS
EQUITY FORUM

MAY 21, 2024 | 8:30AM-12:00PM

South Mountain Community College Performing Arts Center
7050 S. 24th Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85042

Featured Guest

Mayor Kate Gallego will set the tone for women's empowerment as the second elected female mayor in Phoenix history and one of the youngest big city mayors in the United States.

Featured Keynote

Carol A. Poore, PhD, MBA will present "Leadership in the Metaverse: Creating the Future of "WebWe" Through Strategy and Community Building." Carol is a strategic planning expert who expands organizational capacity.

Breakout Sessions

There will be six breakout sessions to choose from covering topics including leadership development, financial empowerment, diversity and inclusion, pay equity, mental health, and community engagement.

Advocacy. Leadership.
Resources.

The Phoenix Women's Commission and YWCA Metropolitan Phoenix are proud to organize the She Matters Equity Forum, an event designed to address equity issues and promote wellness and empowerment for women in the workforce.

Details:

The event will feature a light breakfast, keynote speeches, panel discussions from industry experts, and networking opportunities. This event is open to everyone, including all genders.

City of Phoenix Employees Earn Triple Cultural Competency Points: To receive points, City employees must register at P-NY-OU using course code EOD114-ILT-PWC She Matters Equity Forum.

Registration Required: ywcaaz.org/shematters

Community vendors are invited. Full details at equityforumvendorfair.eventbrite.com.

