Pedestrian Dead After Early Morning Collision

(December 26, 2024) Detectives are investigating a collision that left a pedestrian dead early Thursday morning.

On December 26, 2024, just before 6:30 a.m., officers responded to the area of 91st Avenue and Thomas Road regarding a collision involving a pedestrian. When officers arrived, they located an adult female pedestrian who had been struck by a vehicle.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that the woman was crossing the west side of the intersection, against the light, and was struck by a vehicle traveling eastbound on Thomas Rd. The pedestrian was pronounced dead on scene by the Phoenix Fire Department.

The driver involved was not seriously injured, remained on scene and was evaluated. Impairment is not believed to be a factor in this collision.

Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation.
