North Valley Collision Leaves Woman Dead

(September 18, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a north valley collision that resulted in the death of a woman.

On September 17, 2024, around 6:30 p.m., officers responded to the area of 35th Avenue and Grovers Avenue regarding a collision that resulted in injuries. When officers arrived, they located an adult female, identified as 48-year-old Abigail Lopez Moreno, with injuries. Lopez Moreno was transported to a nearby hospital where she did not survive her injuries and was pronounced deceased. The two vehicles involved remained on scene.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that the vehicle containing Lopez Moreno as a passenger was northbound on 35th Avenue and making a left turn to westbound Grovers Avenue. This vehicle was struck by the other vehicle involved, which was traveling south on 35th Avenue. Impairment is not believed to be a factor in this collision. Charging decisions will be made once the accident reconstruction process is complete. Additional details about the collision remain part of the ongoing investigation.
